Forecast for Thursday 16 Sep 2021

Weather: Occasional light showers at first overnight, which generally dwindle towards dawn as clear spells develop. A fair day with the vast majority avoiding the few isolated showers, while seeing bright and sunny spells, these most widespread through to mid-afternoon. Cloud gradually thickening and lowering from the west from late afternoon, with occasional rain spreading from the west this evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: Generally 90% by day, but 60% in the west through to early morning and again for the evening.

Visibility: Good or very good, briefly moderate or poor in showers and later rain, very poor in hill fog with bases scattered to broken at times to 500m, chiefly in the west early and late in the day.
